Mon 24 th April	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Term 3 begins

- Holy Thursday mass at 5pm. 12 P6 & 7 children will get their feet washed during the ceremony and we would like a good number of P4-7 to join with the choir. Children should wear their school uniform. Traditionally there has been an Easter treat for all those coming along and giving up their time, as we appreciate your support. Please complete the slip at the bottom to help us with numbers.
- Friends of New Row Easter Draw. Still time to get your tickets! There is a very impressive list of prizes – many thanks to all our sponsors. Thanks also to Friends of New Row for their support and hard work gathering prizes. See overleaf for more info on what you could win. Draw on Wednesday at 1.15pm – anyone free to join us is very welcome. Please send completed tickets and money to the office asap.
- Getting ready for the big spring clean? Alltex Recycling are working with us to raise funds after Easter by collecting our unwanted, clean, reusable clothes. We get a higher school rate. They also accept shoes (in pairs) and bags. This appeal helps our Eco Council in working to renew our Green Flag.
- Year 5 swimming begins on Mon 24th April. – bring £2 for bus and £1 for locker (refundable). Girls need a swimming cap and hair needs to be tied up. Remember to pack a towel.
- Have you paid your child's break and milk money for April? Both £4– Break: pay Marie, Milk: pay Office
- Autism awareness– this was a great staff training opportunity and good to link with Castledawson PS.
- Lenten Charity Campaign continues – One big last push for coppers – Bucket now at the front door if anyone else wants to contribute! Chernobyl Children's Charity is a very worthy cause.

Many thanks for your continued support
